SERVICE GUIDE

This Service Guide sets forth the terms, conditions and rules that govern transportation services provided by Clockwork Logistics, Inc. (“Clockwork”) except to the extent varied by written agreements between Clockwork and a particular shipper that are signed by the President of Clockwork. This Service Guide and any updates or supplements hereto supersedes all previous Service Guides and other prior oral or written statements concerning the rates and conditions of transportation services provided by Clockwork. Clockwork reserves the right to unilaterally modify, amend or supplement the rates, liability limitations features of service, services, terms and conditions without notice, and will provide a copy of the current service guide in paper or electronic form upon the request of a shipper. The current Clockwork Service Guide is available at www.cwlog.com.

1. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply to the terms and conditions set out below that govern this contract of carriage between you and us:

"we", "us" and "our" means Clockwork Logistics, Inc. (“Clockwork”) and its employees, agents and independent contractors;

"you" and "your" means the sender, consignor or consignee of the shipment, holder of this consignment note, receiver and owner of the contents of the shipment or any other party having a legal interest in those contents;

"carriage" means and includes the whole of the operations and services undertaken by us in connection with the shipment;

"shipment" means any envelope, document, package, parcel, bag, medical sample, satchel or piece of freight given to and accepted by us for carriage and transported under our consignment note.

“prohibited items” means any goods or materials the carriage of which is prohibited by any law, rule or regulation of any country in which the shipment travels.

2. YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF OUR TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By giving us your shipment you accept our terms and conditions set out in this Service Guide on behalf of yourself or anyone else who has an interest in the shipment irrespective of whether or not you have signed the front of our consignment note, bill of lading or delivery receipt. Our terms and conditions also cover anyone we use to pick up, collect, transport or deliver your shipment. None of our employees, agents or subcontractors are authorized to waive, alter or modify these terms and conditions. When you give us the shipment with oral or written instructions that conflict with our terms and conditions we shall not be bound by such instructions.

3. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Clockwork's liability for loss or damage to a shipment is limited to shipper's actual damages or $50.00 per shipment, whichever is less, unless shipper declares a higher value for carriage as described below. Clockwork will only be liable for loss or damage while goods are in Clockwork's possession.

If shipper wishes to declare a value for carriage in excess of $50.00 per shipment, shipper must do so in writing and shall pay an additional charge for each additional $1,000.00 of declared value. If shipper declares a value in excess of $50.00, Clockwork's maximum liability will be the lesser of shipper's declared value for carriage or shipper's actual damages. The highest declared value Clockwork allows is $10,050.00 (ten thousand and 50/100) U.S. dollars. If shipper sends more than one package on a waybill, the declared value for carriage of each package will be determined by dividing the total declared value for carriage by the number of packages in the shipment. The maximum declared value for a C.O.D. shipment (for both the carriage of the goods and the C.O.D. Amount) is $1,000 per shipment.

If shipper declares a value in writing prior to tendering a shipment to Clockwork in excess of $50.00, additional charges will be assessed at $1.00 per $100.00 or part thereof of the amount indicated in the excess liability coverage value box on the front of the Bill of Lading. Total amount of coverage may not exceed the lesser of the actual value of the goods or $10,000 per shipment. Any partial loss or damage for which the Carrier may be liable shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such valuation. There is a $10.00 minimum charge for Excess Liability Coverage.

Clockwork will not be liable for any damages whether direct or incidental, special or consequential, in excess of the "Value" referred to above, whether or not Clockwork had knowledge that such damage might be incurred, including but not limited to loss of income, profits, interest, utility, loss of sale or loss of market.

Clockwork shall not be liable for shipper's acts or omissions, including, but not limited to, improper or insufficient packaging, securing, marking, or addressing, or for the acts or omissions of the recipient or anyone else with an interest in the package. Also, Clockwork will not be liable for loss of or damage to shipments of items listed elsewhere in the Carriage of Goods Terms and Conditions as items not acceptable for transportation.

Clockwork will not, under any circumstances, be liable for delay in pick-up, transportation, or delivery of any shipment, regardless of the cost of delay.

Further, Clockwork will not be liable for loss, damage, mis-delivery, non-delivery, or delay caused by events Clockwork cannot control, including but not limited to, acts of God, perils of air, weather conditions, acts of public enemies, war, strikes, riots, civil commotions, or acts or omissions of public authorities (including customs and quarantine officials with actual or apparent authority), or caused by the nature of the shipment or any defect characteristic, or inherent vice thereof. Moreover Clockwork will not be liable for any loss, damage, injury, erasure, or other damage to electronic or photographic images data or recordings in any form.

Packages containing all or part of the following items are limited to a maximum declared value of $1,000: 1. Artwork, including any work created or developed by the application of skill, taste or creative talent for sale, display or collection. This includes, but is not limited to, items (and their parts) such as paintings, drawings, vases, tapestries, limited-edition prints, fine art, statuary, sculpture, collectors' items, customized or personalized musical instruments. 2. Film, photographic images, including photographic negatives, photographic chromes, photographic slides. 3. Any commodity that by its inherent nature is particularly susceptible to damage, or the market value of which is particularly variable or difficult to ascertain. 4. Antiques, any commodity which exhibits the style or fashion of a past era and whose history, age or rarity contributes to its value. These items include, but are not limited to, furniture, tableware, glassware and collectors' items such as coins, stamps, sports cards, souvenirs and memorabilia. (Collector's coins and stamps may not be shipped. See "Restrictions.") 5. Glassware, including, but not limited to, signs, mirrors, ceramics, porcelains, china, crystal, glass, framed glass, flat panel display screens (all types), plasma screens, and any other commodity with similarly fragile qualities. 6. Jewelry, including, but not limited to, costume jewelry, watches and their parts, mount gems or stones (precious or semiprecious), industrial diamonds and jewelry made of precious metal. 7. Furs, including, but not limited to, fur clothing, fur-trimmed clothing and fur pelts. 8. If a shipment is sent pursuant to an airline interline agreement, additional restrictions may apply.

ANY EFFORT TO DECLARE A VALUE IN EXCESS OF THE MAXIMUMS ALLOWED IS NULL AND VOID AND THE ACCEPTANCE FOR CARRIAGE OF ANY SHIPMENT BEARING A DECLARED VALUE IN EXCESS OF THE ALLOWED MAXIMUMS DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF ANY PROVISION OF THIS SERVICE GUIDE AS TO SUCH SHIPMENT. EVEN IF A HIGHER VALUE IS DECLARED, OUR LIABILITY FOR LOSS, DAMAGE OR DELAY WILL NOT EXCEED A SHIPMENT'S REPAIR COST, ITS DEPRECIATED VALUE OR ITS REPLACEMENT COST, WHICHEVER IS LESS. WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES, WHETHER DIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL, IN EXCESS OF THE DECLARED VALUE OF A SHIPMENT, WHETHER OR NOT WE KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN THAT SUCH DAMAGES MIGHT BE INCURRED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF INCOME OR PROFITS.

4. CLAIMS REQUIRED TO BE FILED IN WRITING

A claim for loss or damage will not be voluntarily paid by Clockwork unless filed in writing with Clockwork within the time limits specified below.

Minimum filing requirement:

A communication in writing from a claimant, filed with Clockwork within the time limits specified below containing facts sufficient to identify the shipment(s) involved asserting liability for an alleged loss or damage, making claim for the payment of a specified or determinable amount of money, supported by receipts and/or invoices will be considered as sufficient compliance with the provisions for filing claims.

Time limits for filing claims:

As a condition precedent to recovery, claims for lost shipments must be filed in writing with Clockwork within one-hundred eighty (180) days from the time the shipment was tendered. Clockwork shall be allowed a reasonable time in which to locate lost shipments before making settlement, which will be not longer than sixty (60) days from the date of notice of such loss. The date on which the tracing form was received by the Clockwork will be considered as the first day commencing a sixty (60) day period before which a claim will be settled by a firm offer or by a denial.

Upon receipt of a written claim for loss, Clockwork will either (1) pay, (2) decline, or (3) make a firm compromise settlement offer in writing, within one hundred and twenty (120) days after receipt of the claim; provided, however, that if the claim cannot be processed and disposed of within one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt thereof, the Clockwork will, at that time and at the expiration of each succeeding sixty (60) day period while the claim remains pending, advise the claimant in writing of the status of the claim and the reason for the delay in making final disposition thereof and Clockwork will retain a copy of such advice to the claimant in its claim file thereon.

Concealed Damage shall be reported in writing to Clockwork at destination within seven (7) days after delivery of the shipment, and Clockwork or its designated agent shall be given the privilege of making an inspection of the shipment. A claim involving concealed loss or damage must be filed within one-hundred eighty (180) days after delivery of the shipment.

Any suit or action at law to enforce a claim must be instituted within two (2) years and one (1) day after the date of notice in writing is given by Clockwork to the claimant that the claim or any part of parts thereof have been disallowed. Where a claim is not filed or a suit is not instituted thereon in accordance with the foregoing provisions, Clockwork shall have no liability.

5. REROUTING A SHIPMENT

Clockwork may reroute shipments when the reroute is authorized by the shipper. A reroute is a request to change the delivery location or a Hold at Clockwork. An additional fee of $10.00 will be billed to the account number specified for each rerouted package. An additional charge will apply if the new delivery location is more than five (5) miles from the original delivery location. To reroute a shipment, the shipper must call and provide us with the Clockwork tracking number and the new destination address for the shipment, including a valid contact telephone number for the consignee. We will determine the routing of all shipments, including the mode of transportation used, and may use air transportation, ground transportation or any combination thereof in providing our services. We reserve the right to divert any shipment (including use of other carriers) in order to facilitate its delivery. If a shipper wants to reroute a shipment, the shipper must call (216) 581-0707 or (800) 823-2444 toll free and provide us with the Clockwork tracking number. We will attempt to honor the new delivery request, but our verification and handling procedures may result in delayed delivery.

Account numbers are issued by Clockwork and are nontransferable without the express written consent of the President of Clockwork. All requests for account numbers are subject to credit investigation and verification. We do not offer consumer credit privileges. For "Bill Sender" and "Bill Third Party" transactions, packages will not be accepted unless you provide a valid Clockwork account number. For "Bill Recipient" transactions, packages can be tendered without payment, but in order for the package to be delivered, the recipient must give a valid Clockwork account number or pay with cash, check, money order or credit card at time of delivery. If the recipient refuses to pay or provides an insufficient funds check, the sender will be responsible for all charges. For customers utilizing our website ordering system, a valid Clockwork account number is required for "Bill Sender," "Bill Recipient" or "Bill Third Party" transactions. The person or entity to whom a Clockwork account number is issued is liable for all charges to the account. The account holder bears the risk of all unauthorized use of the account holder's Clockwork account number. We may apply payments made on your account to any unpaid invoices issued to your account. Failure to keep your Clockwork account current (all invoices paid within 15 days from invoice date) may result in your account being suspended. You must use your Clockwork account to obtain any applicable discount, if any. Your use of the account number constitutes your agreement that all packages shipped on your account shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Service Guide, as modified, amended or supplemented. To set up a new account with Clockwork, commercial accounts must have a current business listing with telephone directory assistance. Clockwork may provide trade credit information on Clockwork account holders to credit bureaus.

7. INCORRECT ADDRESSES

If a recipient's address is incomplete or incorrect, we may attempt to find the correct address and try to complete the delivery, but we assume no responsibility for our inability to complete delivery under such circumstances. Use of P.O. box numbers, P.O. Box ZIP

Codes or incorrect ZIP Codes, omission of suite numbers, apartment numbers, or the use of old street addresses for recipients who have relocated are examples of addresses requiring corrections. We will not be liable for failing to meet our delivery commitment for any shipment with an incomplete or incorrect address. (See Undeliverable Packages.) An additional fee will be assessed for shipments that are Re-Delivered. (See Re-Delivered Packages.)

8. BILLING

A. "Bill Sender" means charges will be billed to the sender. The sender's Clockwork account must be current. B. "Bill Recipient" means charges will be billed to the recipient. The sender is liable for, and will be billed for, all charges and fees, plus all special handling fees in the event recipient or any third party does not pay. C. "Bill Third Party" means charges will be billed to someone other than the sender or recipient. Charges for shipments within the U.S. may only be billed to a third-party in the U.S. In order to choose this billing option, the Clockwork account number of the third party account must be current. If the party which is rebilled fails or refuses to pay, the sender is liable for and will be billed for all charges and fees, plus all special handling fees. If charges exceed the third-party account credit limits, the sender will automatically be billed for all charges. D. For "Bill Recipient" or "Bill Third Party" transactions, if the recipient or third party fails or refuses to pay the charges, refuses delivery or cannot be contacted, the sender is responsible for and will be billed for any and all charges. We may verify the method of payment for any shipment marked "Bill Recipient" or "Bill Third Party." We reserve the right to refuse any such shipment for which the method of payment cannot be verified. E. 1. We reserve the right to audit shipments made via an automated shipping device to verify service selection and package or shipment weight. If the service selected or weight entered is incorrect, we may make appropriate adjustments to the invoice at any time. 2.

Default billing: Senders are responsible for accurately entering shipment information in written or the on-line order form. Because the number of packages and weight per package are critical to our ability to correctly invoice, if you fail to provide or incorrectly enter this information you will be billed based on our best estimate of the number of packages transported and either the standard dimensional factor at the time of billing or a standard "default" weight-per-package estimate, determined at our sole discretion. If no service is marked, we will send your shipment via the Clockwork service selected by us at our sole discretion.³ A request for invoice adjustment or refund must be in writing. The request may be noted on either the Invoice Summary, Invoice Remittance or by attached letter. However, the request must state the reason you believe an adjustment or refund is warranted and must provide the Clockwork account number, if any, the package tracking number, the date of shipment, and the recipient's name, address, ZIP Code and any applicable non-payment codes. A credit under our Guarantee Policy will only be applied against charges for the shipment giving rise to the credit. A partial payment against an invoice is not considered a request for invoice adjustment or notice of a refund request.⁴ "Overcharge" means a charge based on an incorrect rate; an incorrect special handling fee; billing for the wrong type of service; or billing based on incorrect package or shipment weight, waiting time; or account numbers. ⁵ Requests for invoice adjustment or refunds must be received within 90 days after the date of shipment if the overcharge was caused by us. Requests for invoice adjustments and refunds must be received within 60 days after the original invoice date when you have caused the error. For adjustments due to a service failure or failure to provide timely package status, see Guarantee Policy. If you choose to send your invoice adjustment request separately from your remittance statement, please send to: Clockwork Logistics, Inc., Accounts Receivable Dept., 4765 East 131st Street, Garfield Heights, Ohio 44105. For additional information or assistance regarding billing issues, contact the Accounts Receivable Dept at (216) 581-0707 or (800) 823-2444 toll free, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. (ET), Monday-Friday. ⁶ The shipper is responsible for all reasonable costs incurred by Clockwork in attempting to obtain payment on any transaction. A. "Business day" means Monday through Friday except for the following holidays for Clockwork: New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Easter Sunday, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day. B. Business days for Clockwork are 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. While packages are accepted for transportation 365 days a year, observance of national or local holidays may cause delivery delays. We do not offer refrigeration service. If the shipment contains dry ice, consult the Dangerous Goods section for dry ice requirements.

12. CREDIT TERMS

The invoice date begins the credit term cycle, and payment is upon receipt. Failure to keep your account current will result in your account being placed on a "credit card only" status. This status may impair your ability to use our service, your shipments may be delayed, and it may have an effect on your discount program, if any. All charges not paid within thirty days of the date due shall be subject to a late fee equal to five percent (5%) of the charge and interest at the rate of one percent (1%) per month or part thereof thereafter. If the account number to be billed is not in good credit standing, the delivery may be held or stopped in transit until you make alternate payment arrangements. the guarantee will not apply in such circumstances. 1. Credit privileges will not be restored until you have paid all past-due balances in full and all costs, fees and expenses incurred by Clockwork in collecting or attempting to collect such balances. Clockwork may require establishment of electronic funds transfer as a prerequisite to credit restoration. 2. Customers requesting removal from credit card only status must contact the Accounts Receivable Department at (216) 581-0707 or (800) 823-2444 toll free. 3. Clockwork may decline to restore credit privileges even if all costs, fees, and expenses are paid. In the event prompt payment is not made and your account is placed on "credit card only" status, you agree to be liable for all reasonable costs which include, but are not limited to, attorneys' fees, collection agency fees, interest and court costs. We do not provide consumer credit privileges. To obtain credit privileges, customers may be required to agree to bank draft arrangements for payment on past due accounts.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS & MATERIALS

We do not provide Dangerous Goods Service. We will however accept Dry Ice and Bio-Medical materials. Dry ice shipments prepared in accordance with IATA regulations do not require a Shipper's Declaration, and there is no special handling fee for transporting dry ice at this time. However, dry ice must be entered under the special instructions section in the on-line order or specified when placing an order via telephone. All dry ice shipments require package marking and labeling. Clockwork is not required to add dry ice to packages in its system. Blood, urine, fluids and other liquid diagnostic specimens containing infectious substances will not be transported without the prior written consent of the President of Clockwork. Non-infectious blood, urine and diagnostic specimens must be packaged to meet specific applicable local, state and federal laws. Shippers must also comply with all applicable local, state and federal laws governing packing, marking and labeling of shipments of blood and blood products regardless of whether they are infectious. Hazardous Materials will not be accepted for carriage without the prior written consent of the President of Clockwork. Any package/shipment with an odor or any package that is wet or leaking will not be accepted for carriage. If a shipment damages or contaminates any property, the shipper is responsible for and will reimburse Clockwork for any and all costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with such damage or contamination. Clockwork reserves the right to refuse Dangerous Goods or any questionable materials at any location where they cannot be accepted in accordance with applicable law. The United States Department of Transportation (DOT) regulates the movement of Dangerous Goods by all modes of transportation. The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is a branch of the DOT that oversees Dangerous Goods shipments by air. When Clockwork carriers encounter improperly declared or undeclared shipment of Dangerous Goods, we are required by law to report improperly declared or undeclared shipments of Dangerous Goods to the U.S. Department of Transportation. Penalties for such shipments can range up to $500,000 and five years in jail. The DOT/FAA also requires every shipper to have job-specific Dangerous Goods training prior to offering a Dangerous Goods shipment to Clockwork or another air carrier. U.S. domestic shippers who omit the technical name under the provisions of USG-14 must indicate on the Shipper's Declaration that their material falls under the provisions of USG-14 for "n.o.s." or generic proper shipping names.

23. PACKAGING AND MARKING

All packages must be prepared and packed by the sender for safe transportation with ordinary care in handling. Correct recipient address labels should be placed on each package. Any articles susceptible to damage as a result of conditions which may be encountered in transportation, such as changes in temperature or atmospheric pressure, must be adequately protected by proper packaging. (See Restrictions for additional packaging instructions on particular commodities.) Each shipment must be legibly and durably marked with the name, address and ZIP Code of the recipient. The ZIP Code is crucial to the efficient movement of the package through our system. Corrugated boxes in good, rigid condition large enough to allow cushioning of contents on the top, bottom and sides should be used. Items that cannot be packed into cartons (auto tail pipes, mufflers, tires, rims, etc.) should have all sharp edges and protrusions wrapped and the address label secured by pressure-sensitive tape wrapped completely around the object, or a tie-on tag must be used. Briefcases, luggage, garment bags, aluminum cases, plastic cases, computer cartons or similar types of items whose outer finish might be damaged by adhesive labels, soiling, marking or other types of surface damage that is normal with ordinary care in handling should be placed in a protective container for shipment. The absorbent material, such as gauze or cotton wadding, must be sufficient to absorb the entire contents of all primary receptacles. It is the responsibility of the shipper to ensure that proper packaging is used. Sturdy outer packaging constructed of cardboard/corrugated fiberboard, wood, metal or rigid plastic is required. The sturdy outer packaging must be larger than 7" in length, 4" in width, and 2" in depth. Unacceptable packaging includes, but is not limited to, foam, plastic bags, paper envelopes and cardboard boxes. We will refuse to accept packages not meeting these or any federal requirements.
